The Bullriders of America, Inc., its officers, directors, contractors and committees are not responsible or liable for injury or damage to persons, property or stock of any owner, contestant or assistant. Each contestant by act of their entry, waive all claims against those parties for any and all injuries they or their property may acquire.

SPONSORING COMMITTEE

1. Sponsoring committee will furnish an attended first aid vehicle or ambulance to stand by during the performance and following each performance to properly take care of injured contestants. It is recommended, but not mandatory, that a doctor be on the rodeo grounds.
2. Sponsoring committee shall provide a minimum of $1,000 added prize money.

MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

1. Every person, wishing to be considered for membership with the Bullriders of America, Inc., must submit, to the association secretary, a completed membership application and subsequent dues.
2. Dues shall be set by the Board of Directors and approved by the members.

3. Membership fees for 2009 shall be $75.
4. Members, Contractors and Personnel should carry the same card number each year. If a member doesn't pay his dues for the new year, the card number may be retired.
5. A card will be issued to a current BOA member who has never passed a bad check and will be allowed to write checks for entry fees.
6. A card will be issued to any new member and those members who have passed bad checks in the past. These members may be required to pay entry fees CASH ONLY, or put up a $100 bond when they buy their card. If the member puts up the $100 bond and does not pass a bad check, the bond will be returned at the end of the year. If the bond is put up in the form of a check the member's actual check will be returned to them. In the event the member puts up a $100 bond and passes a bad check the $100 will go to the association and the member will be required to either pay cash or put up another $ 100 bond until they go one year without passing a bad check.
7. When a member buys a BOA card they will be given a buddy pass. This will be good for one person to enter the event. All BOA committees will honor this unless published otherwise. To use the buddy pass, you must show your card at the gate.

8. It shall be mandatory for any non-member contestant winning $300 or more at a BOA sanctioned event to purchase their BOA card. The membership dues may be withheld from prize money won.
9. If a bull rider purchases his membership card at a BOA sanctioned event, the event secretary may take $5 for their time.
10. All personnel who wish to be considered for the BOA finals must have their cards purchased by January 1st of the present year.

ENTRY FEES

1. Entry fees will be $70 minimum. Contractors are allowed a maximum of $10 stock charge. A minimum of $60 will go to prize money.
2. Fees must be paid 30 minutes prior to the start of the bull ride. (Otherwise the contractor/ event secretary must be notified).
3. Any contestant who fails to show up for a sanctioned event will have to pay a $75 fine , and will not be allowed to compete until this fine is paid. The event secretary will be able to collect these fines, as the names will be listed on the Black List. $ 50 goes to the contractor and $ 25 goes to association..

4. First year cardholders must pay CASH ONLY or post $100 bond.
5. Second year cardholders may pay by cash or check. (Unless BLACKLISTED).
6. BOA secretary will notify contestants and stock contractors of current blacklist. This will be updated each month.

DRAWING FOR STOCK

1. A judge must draw all stock in contest.
2. Bulls must be drawn by a standard draw. If more than one contractor's bulls are to be drawn, all contractors bulls must be thrown together and drawn from a hat.
3. The judges will draw 2 bulls to be used for re-rides. The first reride will compete on the first reride bull drawn. The second reride will compete on the second re-ride bull drawn. Reride bulls will be drawn at the time of the official draw. The two reride bulls will be listed on the official judge's sheets only.

DRAWING OUT

1. There will be no drawing out after the stock has been drawn for the performance unless the contestant has a release from both judges.
2. If the contestant draws out after the stock has been drawn, he will be subject to a $25 fine to be paid prior to the close of the performance. This fine will go to the association.
3. Contestants may draw out of the bull ride until 48 hours after the books close. Once books close, there will be no draw outs.
4. No stock will be given until entry fees are paid.
5. All no shows and turnouts will be required to pay a $75 fine. $ 50 goes to contractor and $ 25 goes to association.
6. The event secretaries are to pull the names of contestants who fail to show and send the names to the BOA secretary, who will collect no show fees.
7. Contestants turning out due to injury or illness will not be responsible for fees with a certified doctor's excuse or approval from judges or stock contractor.
8. Contestants turning out due to injury will not be allowed to compete in a BOA sanctioned event for 48 hours after initial turn out.

9. Contestants must present a certified doctor's excuse to the BOA secretary to be kept as official record.

GENERAL BULL RIDING RULES

1. Stock must be ridden for 8 seconds.
  - ◆ Time will start when the bull breaks the plane of the chute.
2. Riding is to be done with one hand and a loose rope with or without a handhold.
  - ◆ No knots or hitches to prevent the rope from falling off the bull when the rider leaves him will be permitted.
  - ◆ Rope must have a bell. No bell, no marking.
  - ◆ The bell must be under the belly of the bull. No more than two bells may be used and must be of the conventional type attached by a strap.
  - ◆ Point of attachment shall be within two inches of the rope.
3. At the rider's discretion, a hotshot will not be used on the bull while he is in the chute.
  - ◆ The hotshot will be used from the back of the bucking chute only.
4. If a bull does not perform up to his potential, the judge can opt for a reride.

5. If the flank comes off of the bull, the rider will be given the option of a reride and may be taken on the same bull if the contractor agrees.
6. The rider must complete a qualified ride before a reride will be offered.
  - ◆ In the event of a reride option, the judges must inform the cowboy of his score and the reride animal.
  - ◆ The cowboy must inform the judge of his decision to take his score or take the reride no later than one bull ride after his initial ride.
7. Riders who are fouled at the chute or if the bull falls completely down will be entitled to a reride. If the bull stops, the rider will be given the option of a reride.
8. In the event a rider is fouled or a bull falls completely down, the rider must immediately declare himself and must not try to ride the stock unless otherwise instructed by the judges.
9. The judge may award a reride if a foreign object or rope horse substantially interferes with the cowboy or the stock's performance.
10. No rerides will be given for failed equipment. Borrowed equipment is considered owned.
11. If a rider makes a qualified ride with any part of

- the rope in his riding hand, he is to be marked.
12. The rider must use 5 point straight rowels, one rowel per shank. No rowels will be locked or bent.
  13. No foreign objects may be attached to the bull rope.
  14. Horns should be tipped to the size of a half dollar when enforceable.
  15. Horns not tipped to the size of a half dollar upon arrival at the Finals; the contractor shall be fined $50 per animal, payable to the BOA.
  16. A contractor wishing to enter a BOA sanctioned event may do so only if the following applies:
