History

Bull riding is one of the fastest growing spectator sports in the country. Bullriders of America Inc is a not for profit organization based in central Missouri. The BOA was founded in 1996 by John, Cam and Ike Hibdon to provide a quality environment for the sport of bull riding in the Midwest. It is an association run by bull riders for bull riders.

The Bullriders of America sanctions bull rides primarily throughout the Midwest. Each year, their event sanctioning area expands. The BOA currently sanctions events in Arkansas, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota, Kansas, Kentucky, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and Oklahoma.

Each year, bull riders compete in front of over 120,000 fans for over $225,000 in prize money at more than 60 events throughout the Midwest. Fort Madison, Iowa hosts the BOA Finals in early August. The top 25 bull riders compete for over $20,000 in cash and prizes.
